Sn 4(1)(b)(i)

Particulars of Organisation, Functions and Duties

Name of the office – Goa State Information Commission

Address : Ground Floor, "Shrama Shakti Bhavan" Patto Plaza, Panaji, Goa-403001.

The Information Commissioners-

1. State Chief Information Commissioner (SCIC) Shri A. Venkataratnam
2. State Information Commissioner (SIC) Shri G. G. Kambli

Functions:

Goa State Information Commission (GSIC) has been constituted under sub-section (1) of Section 15 of the Right to Information (RTI) Act, 2005 vide a Gazette notification dated March 02, 2006. The Commission's mandate is to exercise the powers conferred on and to perform the functions assigned to, it under the Act.

The Goa State Information Commission consists of – (a) the State Chief Information Commissioner; and (b) One Information Commissioner.

The general superintendence, direction and management of the affairs of the Information Commission vests in the State Chief Information Commissioner who is assisted by the Information Commissioner and exercises all such powers and does all such acts and things which may be exercised or done by the State Information Commission autonomously without being subjected to directions by any other authority under the RTI Act.

The Powers, functions of the commission are:

- (i) To receive and inquire into complaints from any person
 - (a) who could not file his request for information with a State Public Information Officer(SPIO) because either he is not appointed or refused to take the request;
 - (b) who has been refused access to information or records;
 - (c) who did not receive response within 30 days of his request;
 - (d) who has been asked to pay unreasonable fee;
 - (e) who has been given incomplete, misleading or false information.
- (ii) To hear and decide second appeals from the citizens in case the information is refused by both the SPIO and the first appellate authority;
- (iii) To impose penalties on the SPIOs if they deny the information or willfully give incomplete or misleading information;
- (iv) Monitor the implementation of the RTI Act by obtaining periodical reports from the SPIOs and the govt. and to submit an annual report to the legislature through the State Government;
- (v) To direct any public authority to compensate a complainant for any loss suffered;
- (vi) To suggest to the public authorities in the matter of maintaining, managing and destruction of records.

The Act enjoins upon the State Government to provide the State Chief Information Commissioner and the State Information Commissioners with such officers and employees as may be necessary for the efficient performance of their functions under this Act, and the salaries and allowances payable to and the terms and conditions of service of the officers and other employees appointed for the purpose of this Act shall be such as may be prescribed. Twelve posts have been sanctioned by the Government (including the SCIC and SIC). So far Government has filled 5 posts including State commissioners out of whom, one has not joined the commission. Thus, the commission is functioning with one under secretary and one peon. Recently, 3 trainees under Pre Employment scheme have been posted temporarily. As there is only one officer in the commission, the commission appointed him as Public Information Officer. First appellate authority could not be appointed. A list of posts filled is as under:
